Newhouse is more than a domestic violence shelter. We believe in whole-person healing and renewal. Our goal is to reveal the courage and light within survivors of every generation, by providing the tools to transform lives.

Newhouse operates an Early Learning Center (birth to age five) and a Center for Education + Healing (school-aged students) at no cost to allow children the opportunity to experience stability and one-on-one support. It also allows parents to attend therapy groups, classes, job training, and to pursue self-sufficiency.

Volunteer newhousekc.org/volunteer

Newhouse volunteers transform the lives of domestic violence survivors through a variety of group and individual initiatives while creating a healing space for survivors to rise through the impacts of trauma.
